What I enjoyed about the book is the necessity of relationship in disciple and an Unlikely Friendship. The two men decide to fix up a vintage Triumph Spitfire in order to bond as Christian men. Seven Key Ways to Live a Life That Matters We live in a culture that permits everything, surrounded by people skimming the surface of life, trying to piece together meaning from ever-shifting truths and fleeting fads. Love Stains. Read an excerpt of this book! So, Dallas spends the first two years in highly relational disciple making environments, finding freedom from the chains of sin.
