If you've ever been to any of these Summer of Yesterday, you'll be able to see them in Triana's words. Hayley goes back to a time and place where her parents are still t After having a seizure Hayley now has to spend the summer with her dad instead of at a summer camp with her friends. What a treasure. It's stoopainful:Haley's parents met at Fort Wilderness askids, and Haley st As long as you don't read too much into the story or the characters, you'll enjoy this book. At times she behaved older, but at other times younger than her actual age. It's the sand Haley's fallen into the waters of history where she opens her her Haley is decided to have a little fun and explore a bit of what her dad used to love when he went there 30 years ago: River Country, which is now closed. I didn't know what I was getting into with this book, but I liked it!
