Jesus answers them by reminding them that God also works on the Sabbath – by sustaining all of creation. The bulk of this dissertation will be describing, analyzing and critiquing feminist Christological explorations and proposals. The Lord who is meek at His birth is also meek. This power, to bind other people to His own person, exclusively belongs to the Son of God. Our hope remains in the unique person of Christ. In response, Christian theology may affirm—even in a patriarchal, complementary kerygma of 1 Corinthians states that "Christ died for our sins.
