A nice enough and well developed story that kept my attention
- at least until it became a little to slow, which is where I found myself skimming some pages. Dark Embrace: Book 3 Aidan, the Wolf of Awe, has abandoned the Brotherhood and forsaken his vows, seeking vengeance against the evil that destroyed his son. I promise.

You got told when someone thought it, but not the words, so why the double standard then? George and his little brother, Beeper, become worried when their father fails to return from a trip to town for food and fuel.

Iandidn'tbothermeatall.ThatwasreallyfunnyIn all her spare time, she's with her 'besties', a group of four chicks with a needy girl that Emma isn't all that nice to. And I was appalled.
