Two on school board call for superintendent's removal | News | Palo Alto Online |

Vacancies. Any active superintendent searches will be listed here. When available, we will post the relevant Vacancy Notice, District Brochure, and Stage Two.

Sep 30, The search process is one Robicheau has become quite familiar "I'm not here advocating for any one process," Robicheau told the board before a superintendent in place by next summer, in time for the start of the school year many of those interviewed mentioned the need to address school.

Selecting a superintendent is the most important task a school board undertakes. however, that rarely are two superintendent searches exactly alike. Situations intendents occur when a superintendent vacates the position after taking office. .. The board should consider the interview process carefully. And once it.

Jan 24, The Board of Education discussed the search process during a called work session on Tuesday, with two basic options: using either the Tennessee School Boards to do its own search or go with a higher-priced national search firm. A national search firm, which Hull said would charge about $20, to.

It appears that our superintendent got "distracted" because he liked to introduce a change for the sake of change. No answer. The lack of accountability and transparency is not something which came up in the past 12 months.

But your raises some very good points. School Board as Cheerleader, Leader, and I am very disappointed in their comments to keep Max.

Community members have faulted McGee's lack of proper management for contributing to the mistake, with some also calling for his removal at Tuesday's school board meeting. I thought that a ridiculous rule for a member of the board, but I said nothing at the meeting.
