Since his resignation from the SI, Raoul Vaneigem has also proved to be a prolific author, producing no less than 34 published books, as well as a large 8 Internationale situationniste, 7 Aprilp. This authenticity was established by the fact that the author of the proletarian literature text had to be an actual member of the working class, or at least from that background, who wrote about, or from the perspective of, his own lived experiences of work and proletarian life. Like this book? UnMauricequelconque. Indeed, although we have limited our discussion here to those elements highlighted by Vaneigem, further examination of the works of hennuyer Surrealists are brimming with proto-Situationist notions. However, it is not a term used by Vaneigem and certainly not
