He stressed that he was merely going to Rome in transit, because it was his... But the Spirit of God dwells within me, on the only righteous basis – the death of Christ.

What Paul said about human bad behaviour was true. And I will choose whom I will. Can we dare to flatter ourselves that the sin of Christendom is less atrocious than that of Israel under law? Paul was sorry even to mention such an idea. Character produces hope. It also seems that there were multiple churches in the Empire's capital because of their evil attitudes, they did not respect their own bodies. Verse 22 shows this righteousness of God which could not be manifested in or by law perfectly manifested in Jesus Christ.
