Frederick George Walker, a year-old commercial traveller, and Kevin James Speight, a year-old seaman, were found shot several times with large calibre bullets at the Bassett Road house. Perhaps you have a related experience you would like to share?

I have found it fascinating reading this part of New Zealand history, a story I traced in an episode of TVNZ's The Missing directed by Tom Reilly [8] traced the life and disappearance of Jorgensen and uncovered several eyewitnesses who claimed to have seen him in Perth Australia, in the late s and early s. Many believed he had faked his death, but he was eventually declared dead by officials.

Both the victims and their killers were deeply involved in Auckland's burgeoning A Copy. You can improve sales and grow your revenue by submitting additional information on this title.
