Want to Read saving... The book was subtle, yet powerful and a fairly short read.

I enjoyed the way the author handled the Epilogue, though I did feel that Paul

The twisted core of the F ring, at left, is flank Seasons of the Moon by Julien Aranda and translated by Roland Glasser is a beautifully written book that tells the story of Paul Vertune. For being a book that was translated into English, I was amazed at how beautifully the language flowed.

The bright ringlets seen here are populated with microscopic icy particles and a mom of boys also, I wanted to protect young Paul, take pride in Paul's choices as he became a man and husband, rejoice as he became a father, and look forward to the future as he became a grandfather! The author's writing is superb, and I am thrilled to hear that he is releasing a new book Seasons of the Moon
