The ending was a little forced, but still excellent book, story, character and plot! My grandmother and great-aunt having been born in Victorian England, this meal followed their traditions. I would suggest you make two. Both of the boys would, of course, rejoin me for turkey and dressing, but the chair at the other end of the table from mine would remain empty, I thought, as another small piece of my still fragile heart chipped away. However, death by expensive chocolate say it is not so!

Women in my family usually process each ingredient separately and then mix them
