This was okay. Not like in the colder, northern climates, where a body could be dumped in the winter and not be found until the spring thaw. Thirtyyearsago. Sounds like a win-win! No current Talk conversations about this book. Mar 25, Wendy rated it it was amazing Shelves: may Overall, it was a good, easy read, with enough action to keep things interesting. The killer appears to haunt interstate truck stops and rest stops, but aside from that meager clue, Maggie and Tully struggle to discern a pattern, even after discovering his barnyard dumping ground in rural Iowa. My thoughts: Love, love, loved this book!
